

ART, CRAFT, AND THREAD SHOWS

Entries taken Wednesday, 3-8 p.m. at Concordia Community Center. Judging will take place Thursday morning. Facilities will be closed until judging is completed.

All entries are to be picked up between 4-5 p.m., Saturday. Not responsible for loss, damage, or theft. Arrangements for items not removed by closing at 5 p.m. will need to be made with chairman. Chairman is not responsible for damages. Entries must be less than two years old unless entered into specified class for older items. No previously displayed items can be shown unless reworked or 'just for show'. ALL FINE ARTS AND PHOTOGRAPHS MUST BE MOUNTED OR FRAMED. One less place will be awarded if not.

All classes listed are available to persons over 65 years old and are judged as separate Seniors Class.

All classes listed are available to persons under 16 years old and are judged as separate Youth Class.

All non-judged class of quilts will be shown. Exhibitor may enter up to three quilts to be displayed and not judged. These will be for show only.

Collections must be informative as well as attractive. Explanation card should be used (PRINT LARGE). Exhibitor will be responsible for staging and protection.

Persons may enter only one item per class.

A best of show ribbon will be awarded on Saturday from the quilt classes and all other classes combined. A grand prize will be awarded by the judges in the quilt classes and in the other classes combined.
